

English Teacher

Permanent Full time position beginning Term 1 2021

Palmerston North Girls' High School

We are a state girls' high school with a proud academic, sporting and cultural record. We pride ourselves on developing young women who are respectful, socially responsible and resilient learners. We are nestled in the heart of Palmerston North with a well resourced English department and access to excellent professional learning opportunities.

We require a qualified English teacher able to teach a range of English classes from junior through to senior. We are looking for an enthusiastic and collegial person to join our supportive team.

To learn more about PNGHS please check our website. We look forward to hearing from you. Applications close 4 December. Position starts 28 January 2021