Disciplinary Policy

(Schedule Two)

1. The following is the School's current disciplinary policy for dealing with breaches of the Agreement. This is not intended to restrict the School's general power of discipline and this policy may be changed from time to time at the discretion of the School.

Overview

2. Except in serious situations where immediate termination of the Agreement is necessary, or where the breach does not call for any formal response other than a warning, the School will try, where appropriate, to follow a two-stage disciplinary process.
3. In Stage One, the School will investigate and decide the facts, and will reach a conclusion on what happened and whether it amounts to a breach of the Agreement.
4. In Stage Two, if the School has determined that a breach has occurred, the School will consider the appropriate response to that breach, up to and including termination of the Agreement.
5. The Student will have an opportunity to provide a response to the alleged breach that the School is investigating (the Allegation) and any proposed disciplinary action that the School is considering taking (the Proposed Action).
6. This policy does not limit the School's power to take appropriate disciplinary action urgently and without following this process if this is necessary having regard to the seriousness of the breach.
7. This policy also does not limit the School's power to suspend the student for the duration of the disciplinary process where suspension is considered necessary for the safety or education of any person.

General Policy

8. When the School is conducting a disciplinary process involving the Student it will aim to provide the Student with the following:
 - (a) a written summary of the Allegation or the Proposed Action;
 - (b) an opportunity to respond to the Allegation or the Proposed Action, either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student;
 - (c) an opportunity to consider the Allegation or the Proposed Action for a reasonable period of time (keeping in mind the seriousness of the Allegation or the Proposed Action) before giving a response;
 - (d) an opportunity to contact his or her Parent before giving a response, unless the delay caused by contacting that person is unreasonable keeping in mind the seriousness of the Allegation or Proposed Action;
 - (e) an opportunity to have an independent support person of his or her choice present at any meeting relating to the disciplinary process;
 - (f) an opportunity to meet with that support person in private at any stage during the disciplinary process;
 - (g) an opportunity to have a translator present (or otherwise enable the student to participate in the process in his or her own language) during any meeting or process if the School or the Student considers that a language barrier means that a translator is required; and
 - (h) a copy of this policy setting out the rights which the Student has when engaging in the disciplinary process.

Disciplinary Procedure

Stage One: Incident Investigation

9. When the School learns of any incident or any other thing that may be a breach of the Agreement or might otherwise require a disciplinary response, the School will notify the Student of the Allegation and will provide the Student with an opportunity to give a response.
10. Where appropriate, keeping in mind the seriousness of the Allegation, the Student will have the opportunity to respond either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student. The School will receive this response and give it genuine consideration before making a decision about the Allegation.
11. When the School makes a decision about the Allegation it will inform the Student and parent, in writing if possible, about its conclusion as to what happened and whether it amounts to a breach of the Agreement.

Stage Two: Outcome Discussion

12. If the School determines that a breach of the Agreement has occurred, it will inform the Student and parent of the possible disciplinary actions that it will consider taking in response to the breach and will provide the Student and parents with an opportunity to give a response.
13. Where appropriate, keeping in mind the seriousness of the breach, the Student and parent will have the opportunity to respond either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student. The School will receive this response and give it genuine consideration before deciding the disciplinary action to be taken.
14. When the School decides the disciplinary action that it will take in response to the breach, it will inform the Student and parents of its decision, in writing if possible. The disciplinary action will not take effect, and no actions will be taken to put it into place, until the Student and parents have been informed of the decision.

The School may, at its sole discretion, and without being required to do so, extend the time for the Student to move out of the Accommodation. AUTHENTICITY DECLARATION

A large amount of student work is internally assessed at secondary school level.

PNGHS acknowledges that when preparing assignments it can be appropriate for people to learn from others and gather information from a variety of sources, e.g. books, Internet etc. Teachers must be satisfied that the work produced is that of the student. Work must not be copied, except direct quotes, which must be acknowledged.

Students are responsible for:

- Keeping all drafts and working documents. They may be required to hand these into the teacher.
- Being prepared to discuss their work with their teacher if required.
- Meeting checkpoints established by their teacher.
- Keeping a record of the resources they are using.
- Acknowledging all sources (print, Internet etc.) appropriately using the school referencing Guidelines.
- Being organised, so that they do not run out of time and be tempted to use someone else's work.

Students must not:

- Copy another student's work.
- Allow another student to copy their work.
- Allow someone else to complete the work for them.
- Copy word for word from another source.
- Quote or use material from written or electronic sources without acknowledging the source (plagiarism).
- Submit work that has already been assessed for another standard (in the same or a different subject).

The school asks that caregivers discuss with the student the importance of producing work that is their own. The consequence of copying the work of others and passing it off as their own is serious; the work will be ruled ineligible for credit/achievement.

Declaration

I declare that all of the work I will produce and submit for assessment will be my own work and I will acknowledge all sources that I use.

ICT RESPONSBLE USE AGREEMENT

Palmerston North Girls' High School Responsible Use Student Agreement

When using information & communications technologies (ICT) at Palmerston North Girls' High School I will always be a good digital citizen. This means that:

I will help others to become better digital citizens.

Being a good digital citizen is something that we all have to work at. If I know that my friends are having problems online, I will try to help them. If I see that someone is being unfairly treated online then I will speak up rather than just watch it happen.

I will always communicate with others in positive, meaningful ways when using ICT.

I will always talk politely and with respect to people online. I know that it is possible to bully, hurt or offend people with what I say and do on the internet. I will think about the effect that my actions have on other people.

I will be honest and fair in all of my actions using ICT.

I will never do anything online that I know will hurt anyone. I will make sure what I do is not against the law. I will make sure that my actions don't break the rules of the websites or networks that I use. When I am not sure about what I am doing I will ask for help.

I will always respect people's privacy and freedom of speech online.

I understand that some information is private. I will be careful when using full names, birthdays, addresses and photos of other people and of myself. I will take reasonable steps to keep my passwords secure. I also know that I will not always agree with what people say online but that does not mean I can use it as an excuse to be unkind to them.

I will be able to speak the language of digital technologies.

When people talk online the things they say can be quite different from a conversation they might have if they were sitting next to each other. I know that I must try to understand what people are saying before I react to them. If I am not sure, I can ask them or someone else to explain.

I understand that I may experience problems when I use technology and that I will learn to deal with them.

I understand that there will be times when technology may not work as I expected it to, or that people may be mean or unkind to me online. When these things happen, I know that there are acceptable and appropriate ways I can deal with it. I also know there are people I can go to, to get help if I don't know what to do next.

I will take steps to protect my privacy and dignity.

I understand that material I share or access on the internet or by phone could be distributed by others or seen by a wide audience. I will endeavour to learn about and use the privacy settings on social media sites I use, and choose carefully the material I share with others.

Student Declaration

I understand that these guidelines for responsible use are to be followed when using any digital technology while at school or away on any school activity.

I am aware that this may include the use of a device that the school does not own.

I understand that it is every individual's responsibility to ensure that when using ICT their actions are within the law.

This includes research, communications, use of social media, file sharing and any other activity carried out in the context of learning. Actions that could potentially breach the law include:

- Threats or abusive messages via text, email or messaging applications. As well as other applicable laws, these are now covered by the Harmful Digital Communications Act 2015
- Posting or sharing of indecent images. This is covered by the Films, Videos and Publications Classification Act 1993 and subsequent amendments.

Everyone at Palmerston North Girls' High School must comply with New Zealand copyright law as laid out in the Copyright Act 1994.

Some parts of the law, such as the Infringing File Sharing Amendment 2011, make the school accountable for copyright infringements recorded as taking place using the school internet connection. The school may pass on any costs associated with copyright infringements to those responsible.

I understand that Palmerston North Girls' High School may provide me with an email address in the form of username@pnghs.school.nz

I am aware that my actions and use of this address reflects on the school in the same way as my actions reflect on the school when I wear my school uniform. Accordingly, I will ensure my use of this email address is appropriate.

I understand that if I breach this responsible use agreement, I may lose access to school ICT services including the use of the internet, on school owned devices or any personally owned device used at school.

I understand that depending on the nature of the breach, other disciplinary consequences may also be incurred through the normal school discipline system.

Palmerston North Girls' High School Responsible Use Parent Agreement

I have read the student declaration and have talked with my daughter about what it means to her.

I am happy that my daughter understands what this means, and that she is capable of working within the guidelines.

I understand that digital technologies need to be used responsibly, and that both the school and parents have a major role to play in teaching this responsibility.

Palmerston North Girls' High School defines a digital citizen as someone who;

- contributes and actively promotes the values of digital citizenship
- uses ICT to relate to others in positive, meaningful ways
- demonstrates honesty and integrity in the use of ICT
- respects the concepts of privacy and freedom of speech on a digital world
- is literate in the language, symbols and texts of digital technologies
- is aware of ICT challenges and demonstrates resilience when managing them effectively

I understand that a copy of the student Responsible Use Policy and the Parent Declaration is available online through the school website (www.pnghs.school.nz)

I understand that the school provides access to the internet and other communications technologies because it believes that they enhance the teaching and learning process.

I understand that the school and parents work in partnership to encourage responsible behaviour when using technology to help protect students from experiencing harm.

I am aware that this "Responsible Use Agreement" is part of that, and that it encourages students to consider how their actions can affect themselves and those around them.

If I have any questions or concerns about the way in which technology is being used by my daughter or other PNGHS students, I will contact the school to discuss this.

I know I am welcome to do this at any time

I understand the responsible use guidelines provided to my daughter cover school-owned technology, and any technology used while at school or on a school-related activity.

I understand that this may include the use of devices not owned by the school. The school may choose to monitor how technology is being used.

I understand that my daughter is expected to comply with New Zealand copyright law as laid out in the Copyright Act 1994.

Some parts of the law, such as the Infringing File Sharing Amendment 2011, make the school accountable for copyright infringements taking place using the school internet connection. The school may pass on to those responsible any costs associated with the copyright breach.

I understand that it is my daughter's responsibility to ensure that when using ICT her actions are within the law.

This includes research, communications, use of social media, file sharing and any other activity carried out in the context of learning. Actions that could potentially breach the law include:

- Threats or abusive messages via text, email or messaging applications. As well as other applicable laws, these are now covered by the Harmful Digital Communications Act 2015
- Posting or sharing of indecent images. This is covered by the Films, Videos and Publications Classification Act 1993 and subsequent amendments.

I understand my daughter may be provided with an email address in the form of username@pnghs.school.nz and is expected to use this responsibly.

I understand breaches of this user agreement may result in a loss of access to school ICT services or the use of the internet. Depending on the nature of the breach, other disciplinary procedures may also be followed.
